

June 20, 2013

Promotions & hires

Vann Allan has been promoted to vice president of Hawaii operations at Phoenix-based general construction company Linthicum. He will be responsible for marketing, preconstruction and construction activities for Hawaii projects. He will also manage contract administration, procurement and subcontract negotiations, cost-monitoring control and maintain his previous role as project manager of individual projects. Allan received his degree in agricultural development with an emphasis in construction science and architecture from Texas A&M.

Vann Allan